

TestProject Product Specific Terms

These Product-specific terms supplement the Tricentis General Terms of Use and supersede any conflicting terms for TestProject:

- 1. Public Customer Content. By setting your Customer Content to be viewed publicly on the TestProject website, you (1) grant to Tricentis, its Affiliates and its service providers, a worldwide, limited license to display the Customer Content and (2) agree to allow others to view, use and/or fork the source code. Tricentis has the right to refuse or remove any Customer Content that is available publicly on the TestProject website in its sole discretion.
